25X1

2. Background: In the referent memorandum (copy attached), you were asked to approve payment of death gratuities to the authorized dependents of three Agency employees who died [REDACTED]. At that time it was our understanding that a dependent child had to be under 18 years of age to qualify for a death gratuity. Subsequently, however, in the course of drafting a regulation on this subject, further research by this Office and the Office of General Counsel has resulted in a determination that a death gratuity may also be paid to a "child" who is a student under 23 years of age who has not married, has not completed 4 years of education beyond the high school level, and who is regularly pursuing a full-time course of study in an accredited institution.

3. [REDACTED] dependent son of [REDACTED] who died [REDACTED] meets these qualifications.

4. Recommendation: That you exercise your authority under Public Law 96-450 and authorize payment of a death gratuity to [REDACTED] in the amount of [REDACTED] which was the annual salary of [REDACTED] at the time of his death.

The amount of the gratuity is set by law as an amount equal to the annual salary of the deceased employee at the time of death. The gratuity is payable: First, to the widow or widower; second to the child, or children in equal shares, if there is no widow or widower; and third, to the dependent parent, or dependent parents in equal shares, if there is no widow, widower, or child.
